AKI: FIVE SHORT FILMS ABOUT PLACE

Aki is the Anishinaabemowin word for Land. Selected by Cara Mumford, these films connect to specific places within the territory of the Michi Saagiig (Mississauga) Nishinaabeg, highlighting that the connection we have with the land today determines the future we have tomorrow. Hosted by the Gitigaan Project.

Each outdoor screening is 30 minutes long, and will repeat from 1pm - 5pm. Prepared food by Grandfather's Kitchen will be for sale at the site.
